

◆For foreign residents in Kobe◆

The Lessons of the Great Hanshin-Awaji Earthquake as seen from the Perspective of Foreign Residents in Kobe

Why don't you listen to the story of the experience of the Great Hanshin-Awaji Earthquake by a foreign resident in Kobe and his/his community's effort for disaster risk reduction with the participants of JICA training course?

- ◇ Date and time Friday 17th July, 2015 13:30 -16:00
- ◇ Meeting Time Friday 17th July, 2015 13:15
- ◇ Venue Kobe International Center for Cooperation and Communication(KIC)

2nd Floor , Kobe Commerce, Industry, and Trade Center Building,
5-1-14 Hamabe-dori, Chuo-ku, Kobe
- ◇ Target Participants Foreign Residents in Kobe (*Junior High School students or above)
- ◇ Lecturer Mr. Darrick Mosser, Canadian Academy
- ◇ Language English
- ◇ Max. participants 20(First come, first served.)
- ◇ Fee Free
- ◇ Application period From Friday 19th June to Wednesday 15th July
- ◇ Application Send the application form below to the KIC by fax or email

KICC character KOKKO-chan

FAX : 078-291-0691 / Email : jigyo@kicc.jp

KIC Jigyo ka : ☎ 078-291-8415

Organizer: Kobe City Fire Bureau, Kobe International Center for Cooperation and Communication (KIC)

APPLICATION FORM

Lecture Title: The Lessons of the Great Hanshin-Awaji Earthquake as seen from the Perspective of Foreign Residents in Kobe. (Friday 17th July, 2015)

✿ Name (in katakana) _____ ✿Name (in alphabet) _____

✿ Adress _____ ✿Phone number _____

✿ Email address / FAX number _____ ✿Country _____

※Please fill out all the blank.